THE VISION:
Established as a program in 1959 and granted school status in 1966, the School of Travel Industry Management (TIM) at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa strives to be the leading travel industry and tourism education and knowledge creation school in Hawai‘i and the Asia-Pacific region.

THE VALUES:
Excellence, to promote and practice the highest standards of teaching, research, training and outreach. Critical thinking, to promote and practice free, independent, and reasoned analysis of issues. Integrity, to promote and practice the highest standard of ethics and accountability. Respect, to promote and practice acceptance of diverse perspectives and cultures. And, sustainability, to promote and practice protection and enhancement of economic, environmental and sociocultural resources.

THE MISSION:
To develop and disseminate hospitality, tourism, and transportation concepts, knowledge and skills through global leadership in teaching, research, training and outreach. These activities contribute to economic, sociocultural, and environmental sustainability, including supporting and enriching host cultures.
1. Industry Pioneer
Built on the foundation of management science, the School of Travel Industry Management (TIM) was the first school to pioneer and integrate all aspects of hospitality, tourism and transportation management into a single discipline, educating leaders in the industry for over 50 years.

2. Recognized for Excellence in Education
TIM School was among the first institutions granted full accreditation by the Accreditation Commission for Programs in Hospitality Administration (ACPHA) and was awarded the first Pacific Asia Travel Association (PATA) Gold Education Award for outreach in the region.

3. Scholarships that Stimulate Knowledge
Over $200,000 in merit-based scholarships and grants are awarded to TIM students every year, demonstrating our commitment to our student's success both inside and outside the classroom.

4. Facilities that Advance Learning
The Sunset Reference Center houses the largest collection of specialized resource material on tourism in Hawai‘i. Additionally, the Leong Hop and Bernice C. Loui Computer Laboratory and the Gee Technology Learning Center serve as a focal point for studies around the management of electronic network information systems and services in the travel industry.

5. Diverse Student Body
Ranked as one of the most diverse campuses in the country, the unique mix of ethnicities on our campus provide TIM students with the background to excel in the global travel industry market.

6. Accomplished Faculty with Experience
The academic foundation of the TIM School is vested in excellent faculty. TIM faculty have gained recognition in the field of travel industry management through academic research contributions and authoring textbooks that are used worldwide by academic programs and industry professionals. TIM faculty also serve business, community, federal and state government agencies and travel industry related organizations.

7. Internship and Career Development
TIM students are required to complete two, 400-hour internships in order to graduate. Alumni mixers, employer on-campus recruitment, career fairs and annual networking dinners are just a few of the events offered to TIM students to ensure success of our highly sought after students after graduation.

8. Involved Student Clubs
There are numerous ways for TIM students to get involved through professional and social activities and more. By participating in one of our eight student clubs, TIM students are provided with additional enrichment and leadership opportunities to enhance their education.

9. Global Alumni Network
TIM International, Inc. (TIMI), the TIM School alumni chapter, is one of the largest and more active alumni organizations within the University of Hawai‘i. With over 4,000 alumni worldwide, TIMI provides students with a plethora of networking opportunities, scholarships and more.

10. Professional and Executive Programs
The Executive Development Institute for Tourism has offered professional training programs since 1979, providing participants with leading edge knowledge and skills in international management principles and practices.
